ABOUT ME

Computer Enthusiast
Avid and inquisitive computer user, programmer, and technophile I'm highly computer literate, proficient in most office suite software, developed in logic and problem solving, and have learned a great deal of technical knowledge.

Student and Tutor
Beyond formal schooling I have continued educating myself and others via projects, researching, and tutoring. University settings provided experience in the theoretical and practical application of computing/programming.

Civil Air Patrol Squadron Cadet Commander
Operating in the highest cadet capacity within the largest squadron in the world I was responsible for managing, training, and educating over 200 subordinates in Leadership, Aerospace Education, and Emergency Services.
